Supplements (Vegetarian — Consult Doctor First)

Supplement	Purpose	When
Plant-based Protein Powder	If unable to hit 110g protein from food (pea/soy/rice protein)	Post-workout
Multivitamin	Fill micronutrient gaps	Morning with breakfast
Flaxseed Oil / Algae Omega-3	Joint health, recovery (vegetarian omega-3 source)	With any meal
Vitamin D3	Most Indians are deficient	Morning
Vitamin B12	Essential for vegetarians — often deficient	Morning
Iron + Vitamin C	Better absorption for plant-based iron	With meals
Creatine Monohydrate	Strength & recovery (after 30 days of training)	Anytime, 5g/day

> Important for vegetarians: Get your Vitamin B12 and Vitamin D3 levels checked. Most vegetarians are deficient.

Foods to AVOID / LIMIT

Avoid	Limit (1-2x/week max)
Sugary drinks (Coke, Pepsi, Fanta)	Fried snacks (samosa, pakora)
Packaged fruit juices	White bread
Deep fried foods daily	Sweets / mithai
Maida-based items (naan, pastries)	Ice cream
Alcohol	Biscuits / cookies
Instant noodles (Maggi daily)	Restaurant food
Excess sugar in tea/coffee	Chips / packaged snacks

Phase-wise Nutrition Adjustments

Phase 1 (Day 1-30): Build the Habit

- Focus on eating consistently — 4-5 meals/day
- Hit 2,300 kcal and 100g+ protein daily
- Reduce sugar in tea/coffee gradually
- Drink 3 liters water minimum
- No need to count calories obsessively — just follow the meal plans

Phase 2 (Day 31-60): Optimize

- Start tracking protein more carefully — aim for 120g+
- Increase carbs on heavy workout days by 1 extra roti/cup rice
- Reduce carbs slightly on rest days
- Try meal prepping on Sundays for the week

Phase 3 (Day 61-90): Fine-Tune

- Target 130g protein consistently
- Eat more on training days, slightly less on rest days
- Notice how your body responds — adjust portions accordingly
- Consider adding whey protein if struggling with protein targets

Important Rules

1. Never skip breakfast — it fuels your morning coding session
2. Eat protein in every meal — essential for muscle recovery
3. Don't starve yourself — you need energy for coding + workout
4. Cheat meal: 1 per week (Saturday/Sunday) — enjoy guilt-free
5. No eating 1 hour before workout
6. Eat within 1 hour after workout
7. Sleep 7-8 hours — muscles recover during sleep
8. If you miss a meal, don't double the next one — just continue normally
